

NOTICE OF INSTRUCTION PERMIT EXTENSIONS

In response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Department of Licensing (DOL) is continuing to extend Washington instruction permits. Permits expiring March 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021 will be extended (see details below).

Don't wait to renew

These extensions are in effect for a limited time. DOL has temporary rules in place making almost everyone eligible for online renewals, so act now to renew your permit. There is nothing to be gained by waiting.

Renew online in minutes at: <https://www.dol.wa.gov/dontwait>

Extension details

2020

- Permits expiring March 1, 2020 through June 30, 2020 are valid 360 days past the date printed on the document.
- Permits expiring July 1, 2020 through Sept. 30, 2020 are valid 270 days past the date printed on the document.
- Permits expiring Oct. 1, 2020 through Dec. 31, 2020 are valid 180 days past the date printed on the document.

2021

- Permits expiring Jan. 1, 2021 through March 31, 2021 are valid 90 days past the date printed on the document.

Permit holders will not receive new documents with new expiration dates. You can present this letter with an expired license if asked by law enforcement or others who need to verify your identity. Permits with expiration dates that fall within the extension windows are not subject to penalties or late fees.

Check an expiration date online at: <https://www.dol.wa.gov/driverslicense/checkstatus.html>